On your ORPAS application, you have indicated that you are of Canadian Aboriginal ancestry. If you wish to be considered for admission under Western’s Masters of Physical Therapy Indigenous Applicant Admission Category, please complete the following form and email it to is.access@uwo.ca

Note: Completion of this form is voluntary and is not required to be considered for Masters of Physical Therapy admission at Western. Only applicants who complete this form and submit supporting documentation will be eligible for consideration under the Indigenous Applicant Admission Category.

1. I am confirming that I am of Aboriginal* ancestry.
   - Yes
   - No
   *First Nations, Métis and Inuit people in Canada are considered Aboriginal based on the Canadian Constitution Act 1982.

2. I consent to being considered for admission under Western’s Masters of Physical Therapy Indigenous Applicant Admissions Category and to the collection of my personal information. I also understand that this consent process does not guarantee my admission.
   - Yes
   - No

3. Next Steps - Proof of Ancestry Requirement
   To be considered under the Aboriginal Admission Access Category, Western requests proof of Aboriginal ancestry. This can be submitted through a scanned copy (front and back) of an applicant’s Indian Status Card, Metis Citizenship or Membership cards or Inuit Trust. Proof of Ancestry can be sent to Indigenous Services by fax, email or mail at:

   Indigenous Services, Student Experience
   Western University
   Western Student Services (WSS) building Room 2100
   London, Ontario N6A 3K7
   Fax: 1-519- 850-2578 (confidential fax)
   Email: is.access@uwo.ca

   If you have circumstances that have prevented you from obtaining Aboriginal documentation, email Zeeta Lazore Cayuga, Indigenous Liaison Admissions Coordinator, at is.access@uwo.ca with the subject heading “Zeeta-Assistance required with Proof of Ancestry Requirement”.

☐ By clicking on this box, I hereby certify that all statements are correct and complete. I understand that any misrepresentation of this data may result in the cancellation of my application, admission or registration status at the University at any time.
