

Principles for Indigenous Allyship

Accepting Truth before jumping into Reconciliation

Unsettling biases and creating new pathways forward, together

Honouring Indigenous sovereignty and self-determination in decision-making and relationship-building processes

Fostering trauma-informed, culturally inclusive and accountable environments

Supporting the reclamation of Indigenous knowledge systems & lands through Indigenous-led cultural resurgence & language revitalization

Cultivating Treaty and Indigenous literacy, starting where your feet are planted

Building reciprocal relationships in the spirit and intent of Treaties

Leveraging power, resources and privilege to advocate for, and support Indigenous-led initiatives

Respecting Indigenous community leadership, protocols, processes and approaches

Decolonizing and dismantling oppressive systems and structures
