Traditional Opening

Welcoming address, opening remarks

1. Governing for Self Determination, Jesse Staats
 - a. Researching Indigenous Education Councils within Post Secondary spaces
 - b. Looking for interviewees willing to discuss their work as internal or external members to our IPEC council. Interviews will take 1 hour and research findings will be disseminated to all the participants and departments who may benefit from utilizing the data
 - c. To contact the research lead, contact Jesse.Staats@mail.utoronto.ca

2. Office of Indigenous Initiatives Updates
 - a. Allyship guide is still in the drafting process, concerns of length currently document is fifty pages.
 - i. Goals to distribute to the larger Western University community, specific departments as well as External partners
 - ii. Suggestion to have two versions, one as a cliffs notes version and one version with longer more detailed resources etc
 - iii. Until this resources is ready, there are many other resources one could utilize until it is ready, for example The PATH and Four Seasons of Reconciliation modules are available

- iv. Will the allyship module be mandatory- hopefully, to go along with the other mandatory resources such as Anti-Racism, Gender-based Violence and Western University on boarding measures

b. Identity Affirmation Policy (IDP)

- i. Built to design safeguards into hiring processes, designed as a living document to be reviewed and updated every year. Applicable for Staff Students and Faculty roles. Going beyond Self-Identification
- ii. Piloted with 3 contenting interviewees
- iii. Policy contains a) statement of lived experience, b) proof of Identification and c) Proof of Indigenous Ancestry. All three categories need to be submitted for review by IDP council
- iv. IPEC committee members asked to review the IDP before February 9th and provide Dr Christy Bressette with any changes or recommendations
