Southwest Ontario Aboriginal Health Access Centre (SOAHAC) is a diverse, dynamic, multiservice Aboriginal health and wellness agency. We strive to provide quality, holistic health services by sharing and promoting traditional and western health practices to enable people to live in a more balanced state of well-being. SOAHAC provides services to Aboriginal people including those who live on and off reserve, status, non-status, Inuit, and Metis within the southwest region. SOAHAC has a mandate of ensuring that health services are accessible, of high quality, and are culturally appropriate. We are also mandated to build health care capacity within Aboriginal communities. Currently, we are seeking the services of a Family Social Worker to join our interdisciplinary staff team at our Windsor site.

Position Summary: This position is suited for a compassionate, creative, problem-solver who works comfortably with both culture-based and western services. As part of the Mental Health Team, the Family Social Worker will be a front-line position with the primary responsibility to support individuals and families requiring assistance with a variety of wellness needs and who are accessing Primary Care services at SOAHAC. The successful candidate will be involved in a wide range of social work services with a focus on supporting individuals and families to improve wellness, achieve stability, and increase resilience. Services will be provided in our Windsor location and will also respond to other internal referrals.

Experience: Direct experience working with Aboriginal families and familiar with cultural-based services, social work, or in crisis intervention, child welfare, justice or other health settings. Experience working with FNIM people in community-based settings is necessary and fluency in a local language is an asset.

Reporting to the Integrated Care Manager – Windsor Site, the Family Social Worker is responsible for:
